

Kareem J. Woodard

Suitland, MD
240-997-9251
woodreem2021@gmail.com

Summary

Motivated and detail-oriented Computer Technology student with academic, hands-on experience in database development, cybersecurity, and programming. Strong problem-solving skills with a passion for technology, innovation, and teamwork. Seeking an internship role to apply technical knowledge, add value to organizations and continue professional development.

Education

Bowie State University

August 2023 - Present

B.S. in Computer Technology, expected graduation May 2027

Chesapeake Math & IT Academy North High Charter School, GPA 3.57

Graduated May 2023

Professional Experience

One Montgomery Green, Montgomery County, Maryland Intern

November 2025 - present

- Collect and store data is to provide the best insights on how to maintain a sustainable and clean environment across Montgomery County.
- Support activities and events.
- Researching potential business or employer information and resources both online and outreach by phone and email for mapping projects.
- Engage in outreach and marketing using social media platforms.
- Helping with maintenance, planning, coordinating details and documenting events.
- Utilized mapping tools to support OMG's partnership with green organizations to identify and help promote sectors and businesses that grow the local economy.

The Huddle Foundation Internship, Bowie, MD

May 2025

- Participated in a three (3) day Internship held at Bowie State University where college students analyzed quantitative data and quantitative data derived from a local basketball tournament.
- Created a report that captured qualitative data on players to assess and predict future marketability in professional leagues.

Summer Youth Enrichment Program (SYEP)
Job Readiness Training, Largo, MD

June 2025

- Completed three-day training and experiential learning program to promote success in the workplace as new professionals.
- Participated in facilitated groups of roundtable discussions and interactive sessions on professionalism, communication and conflict resolution.

Summer Youth Enrichment Program (SYEP)
Student Employee

July 2024 - August 2024

- Participated in a group capstone project of creating a technology business designed to protect users' digital identity and financial security.
- Prepared presentations, applications and a website.

Movie Ticket Database Project, Bowie State University

May 2024-May 2024

- Designed a Movie Ticket Database using Microsoft Access for secure and efficient booking.
- Created relational tables for data derived from movie ticket sale transactions.
- Implemented queries to determine seat availability, booking history and sales reporting.
- Developed a customer report to enhance user experience and marketing strategies.

Freshman Seminar Project, Bowie State University

August 2023 - October 2023

- Learned programming in C language and hardware to build an Artificial Intelligence (AI) kit.
- Programmed an AI-assisted back-end sensor using C programming languages.
- Designed and tested a back-end sensor for Tesla vehicles.
- Integrated use of Arduino programming language for use in the Arduino development environment to manage projects.

Woodstream Christian Academy, Summer Youth Enrichment Program (SYEP)

Student Management Aid

July 2022 - August 2022

- Assisted teachers with scheduling and student engagement activities.
- Led student activities and ensured a structured environment while managing classroom setups.

Summer Youth Employment (SYEP), Prince George's County, MD

Student Employee

June 2021 - July 2021

- Created Business Plan to design a security application to prevent cyber bullying, "catfishing" and hacking through the use of photo encryption, 3-step verification, and facial recognition for social media users.
- Created presentation of the plan to program directors and peers.

Summer Youth Employment Program (SYEP), Prince George's County, MD

Student Employee

June 2020 - July 2021

- Participated in research and analysis in Science, Technology, Engineering and Mathematics (STEM) and STEM thinking in the National Energy Education Development (NEED) Project.
- Applied entrepreneurial and leadership skills to promote energy efficient products to consumers.

College Courses

Client Operating Systems

Linux Operating System

PC Architecture

Introduction to Database Development

Introduction to Python Programming

Computer Tools & Environment

Computer Networking

Principles of Secure Coding Using Java

Skills

Project Management

Database Management

Data Analysis

Leadership

Communication

Problem Solving

Reporting

Teamwork

Systems & Software

- Artificial Intelligence
- Microsoft Office Suite (Excel, Access, Word)
- Google Workspace Applications
- Windows
- Linux
- Programming languages (C, Java, Python)

Professional Affiliations

100 Black Men Program, Prince George's County

October 2022 - May 2023

- Engaged in leadership development and mentoring activities with peers.
- Explored career pathways and expanded professional networking opportunities.